GOOD MEN ARE IN WESLEYAN SQUAD

Daily Practice is Being Held by Buckhannon Football Team.

(SPECIAL TO THE TELEGRAM)
BUCKHANNON, Sept. 24.—The West Virginia Wesleyan football squad is in daily practice both in signals and scrimmage work. Since the return of the men from Rock Cave training camp almost a week ago daily practice has been held on College Field. From the results of the practice so far it certainly looks as if Wesleyan will have a better team than last year.

Many new men are out to practice and all of them seem to be made of the real football "stuff." The "Varsity" as constituted so far is made up of the best men on the field. The second string seems to be better than ever before. Two backfields, either one of which is the equal of that which played last year are available. Although recent rains have made the ground soggy much advance has been made in conditioning the team. The old men who are out for the team are Captain Lambert center, Stansberry quarterback, Kellison tackle, Neal end, Morrison end,

The party proved a complete surprise, as Mrs. Robinson never surmised anything until half of the guests had arrived. Mrs. Robinson was the recipient of many beautiful presents. Gas lights on the lawn furnished a play ground for the younger set and some of the older ones participated in the games. At 11 o'clock delicious refreshments were served, and at 12 o'clock the guests departed, reporting a delightful time and wishing Mrs. Robinson many more happy birthdays.

Mrs. Earl G. Dresbach delightfully entertained a number of friends Tuesday evening at a bowling party at the Gore bowling alleys in honor of her niece, Miss Florence Preston, of Columbus, O., who is spending several weeks in the city.

Miss Preston, honor guest, won the ladies' prize for the high score of the evening, a five pound box of candy. Mr. D. Scott Thompson won the gentlemen's prize, a beautiful seal skin purse. After the bowling contest all present were ushered to the Gore cafe, upstairs, where a dainty luncheon was served, after which Mr. Thompson and Mr. Dresbach drove all the guests to their homes in their automobiles.
Those present were: Misses. Iona Smith, Nellie Hursey, Mabel Fletcher, Helen Gordon, Virginia Stewart and the honor guest, Miss Florence Preston; Messrs. Mr. Well Dressed.

Merchant Tailoring Business today is so utterly advanced that Ready-Made Clothes are simply made, not as an economy or as leaders of style, but simply for "Mr. I Care Not" for my appearance.

You readily understand that the large clothing manufacturers work a year in advance, which is conclusive proof that the woollens used are one year behind the woollens used in Merchant Tailoring, saying nothing about the styles not being up-to-date.

Come in today and see my woollens.
